中国·上海·复旦大学文史研究院

National Institute for Advanced Humanistic Studies, Fudan University, Shanghai, China
June 23 – July 2, 2024

为促进亚洲宗教、艺术与历史研究领域的中外学生交流与培养，复旦大学文史研究院和东京大学东洋文化研究所、哥廷根大学东亚系、加州大学伯克利校区历史系李嘉诚基金项目将在复旦大学（上海市邯郸路220号）合作开设第十三届“亚洲艺术、宗教与历史研究”夏季研修班。本次研修班主题为“在亚洲背景中重新观察近世中国史”。研修班设置6-8门课程，邀请日本、美国、中国、德国的知名教授授课，并安排课后分组讨论以及课程考察，学生需完成课程论文。

The National Institute for Advanced Humanistic Studies at Fudan University (IAHS), the Institute for the Advanced Study of Asia of Tokyo University, Department of East Asian Studies, University of Göttingen, and Department of History (LKSF Program), University of California, Berkeley invite applications from advanced graduate students for an intensive summer program in Studies of East Asian Arts, Religion, and History (June 23 – July 2, 2024) in Shanghai, China. Professors from prestigious institutions will provide seminars, each with a specific topic of their respective expertise. We will also arrange associated research activities to complement the lectures. The Program will end on July 2nd; dormitory rooms should be vacated by then. The Program organizes visits to the Shanghai Museum or the Shanghai Library, local libraries, temples and churches as well as a visit to Jiangnan areas where significant cultural and architectural traditions are preserved. The chance to meet and exchange views with graduate students from Tokyo, Fudan, and other East Asian universities is also encouraged. Students are expected to submit an essay after the six seminars. The topic of this year's seminar is "Reconsidering Modern Chinese History in the Asian Context".
