

<Tobunken/ASNET Special Seminar>

Cultural Heritages in Sumer: the most ancient city Uruk and the others

Stone Cone Temple of Eanna at Uruk

©Tatsundo KOIZUMI

Ziggurat at Ur

©Tatsundo KOIZUMI

The speaker will report current situations of Uruk, Ur, and Eridu in the Sumer region of Iraq, which had been registered as cultural heritages by UNESCO in 2016, and trends of foreign countries' archaeological works there.

In addition, the speaker and the commentator will discuss how we, Japanese researchers, will be able to contribute to archaeological studies and other works in the Sumer region.

◆ Date : June 30, 2017 (Fri.), 17:45~19:30

◆ Venue : Main conference room, IASA, The University of Tokyo

◆ Opening Address:

Rahman AL-Jothery (Chargé d'Affaires, Embassy of the Republic of Iraq)

◆ Speaker : Tatsundo Koizumi (Project Researcher, IASA, The University of Tokyo)

◆ Commentator: Atsumu Okada (President, Middle East Forum of Tokyo)

◆ Language : Japanese (summary in English)

Supported by : Embassy of the Republic of Iraq in Japan, Middle East Forum of Tokyo, and Seminar of West Asian Archaeology in Waseda University

The Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia
Network for Education and Research on Asia
The University of Tokyo

