

Japan–Latin America Academic Conference 2018 in Nikko
The First Mexico–Japan Academic Forum
The Third Chile–Japan Academic Forum
The First Brazil–Japan Academic Forum

Social Science & Humanities, Asian & Latin American Studies

(Tokyo Session)

The Pacific Rim from Global Historical Perspectives, 1492–2018

September 22–23, 2018

Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, The University of Tokyo

September 22 (Sat.)

09:30–10:00 Morning Coffee

10:00–10:10 Opening Remarks

Katsuo NAWA (The University of Tokyo)

Johannes REHNER (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

10:10–12:10 Session 1: Scopes of the Pacific Rim

Chair: KHOHCHAHAR E. Chuluu (The University of Tokyo)

Ryuto SHIMADA (The University of Tokyo)

“The Pacific Rims in Global History”

Barbara SILVA (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

“Look Up to Southern Stars: The Pacific in Transnational History of Astronomy”

Javier PUENTE (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

“El Niño and the Environmental Making of the Twentieth-Century Geopolitics of Catastrophe”

Fabio Yuchung LEE (Tsing Hua University, Taiwan)

“Discussion of Western Pacific’s Spanish Trade Network Research: The Report of Diego Antonio de Viga of 1682”

12:10–13:30 Lunch Time

13:30–15:00 Session 2: Business, Law and Economy

Chair: Osamu TAKAMIZAWA (The University of Tokyo)

Johannes REHNER (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

“Investment, Territoriality and Development Narratives: East Asian Companies in Chile (1973–2018)”

Junichiro KUSUMOTO (Toyo University)

“Shipper’s Notification Duty of Dangerous Goods and Carrier’s Duty to Secure Seaworthiness Ability after Revision of Japan Sea Commercial Code”

Fernando PURCELL (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

“Pacific Encounters: Gold, Migrations and Capitalism in the Mid-Nineteenth Century”

15:00–15:30 Coffee Break

15:30–17:00 Session 3: Social and Political Linkages

Chair: Tomoko MORIKAWA (The University of Tokyo)

Ruriko SAWAMURA (The University of Tokyo)

“The Chinese ‘Gobernador’ in Philippines in the 16th and 17th Centuries”

Yijiang ZHONG (The University of Tokyo)

“‘Turning the Sea of Japan into Our Domestic Lake’: Trade, Immigration, and Empire in Northeast Asia, 1931–1945”

Natsuki SATO (Kyoto University)

“Salvadoran ‘Refugees’ and Hispanic/Latino Communities in the 1980s America”

17:00–18:15 General Discussion

Chair: Ryuto SHIMADA (The University of Tokyo)

Keynote Speaker: Alessandro STANZIANI (The University of Tokyo and EHESS, France)

“Is Oceanic History A Global History?”

18:30–20:30 Reception

September 23 (Sun.)

09:00–09:30 Morning Coffee

09:30–11:30 Session 4: Migration, Diaspora and Cooperation

Chair: Katsuo NAWA (The University of Tokyo)

Pedro IACOBELLI (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)

“ILO and Human Capital Transfers in the Japanese Migration Project to Bolivia”

Emma Chishuru NAKATANI SANCHEZ (Centro de Investigación y Docencia Económicas, Mexico)

“A Japanese Migrant in Mexico: A Life Story of the XXth Century”

Mariko NIHEI (Tokai University)

“Contrasting Experiences of Japanese Immigrants in Mexico and the United States”

Mika MIYOSHI (The University of Tokyo)

“Tourism, Popular Culture and the Caribbean Diaspora”

11:30–12:30: Closing Remarks and Business Meeting

Ryuto SHIMADA (The University of Tokyo)

Pedro IACOBELLI (Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile)